Doppel Kampagne 2020-2022

Season 2020-2021, Germany – was dubbed the Corona Karneval. The annual Straßenkarneval (Street Mardi Gras) was cancelled due to the coronavirus pandemic. This went for the classic Karnevalsitzungen (large events, sometimes attended by thousands of participants) as well as the Rosenmontagzug (Karneval parade). Instead, all Rhenish jesters and fools celebrated the festival virtually or at home and safely in small groups.

Our Karneval season last year did not take place as planned either. We were able to proclaim a Prinz but, had to cancel several events. Happily, our need for social contact was accommodated safely with the celebration of our milestone 55th Anniversary, inspiring cheerfulness instead of pandemic fear.

Karneval during a pandemic is certainly not about taking undue risks, but rather about maintaining and cultivating traditions. It is especially during the scary times that we need solid traditions most. Karneval is characterized as a time of great sociability and high spirits which is tricky to handle during a pandemic. Karnevalists had to get creative to convey the heart of Fastelovend (the traditional Cologne term for Karneval.) We know Karneval always evolves, but Karneval remains, at its heart, about encouraging people in difficult times.

Season 2021-2022 begins with new hope that the waning pandemic will continue to fade away. We never closed the season last year. Our Prinzenpaar still reigns and so the season continues. As a result, this season will be a bit different. We restarted with Piratenball and extend what is longest Karneval season in the history of the AKG. The “Doppel Kampagne“ of 2020-2022.

Elferratspräsident der Anaheim Karnevalsgesellschaft

The Anaheim Karnevalsgesellschaft is glad to be back celebrating Karneval at the Phoenix Club in Anaheim. As if the Corona virus wasn't enough to disrupt last Karneval season, we are now facing the prospect of packing up to relocate to a new Club home, in Brea in early 2022. The "Doppel Kampagne" (double season) was a natural solution to a second year of uncertainty for us. We are grateful that our Prinz Matthias 1. and his Prinzessin Jocelyn 1. agreed to extend their reign into 2022.

A few things are certain, the balls, performances and good humor, will carry on, though perhaps in different locations. New friends, will join in the fun and revelry. Soon our new Narrennest will be a fresh start and allow the us to focus on German Karneval events and traditions more than ever before. We extend a hearty "Phoenix Helau!" and "Brea or Bust" and we hope to see you there.

German-American Mardi Gras Assoc.

Did you miss Karneval?

These have been 2 extraordinary years for all of us. Sickness, lockdowns, masks (outside of Karneval..), elections – and dramatic changes at the Phoenix Club. But like so many other things in life, people deal with the situation, adapt and hope.

Nobody in the world celebrated Karneval last year – but we are back. Karneval is still one of the few places where people come together, just to celebrate life, fun and freedom. Where jokes about politicians and different viewpoints can be shared without getting into deep philosophical discussions. Tomorrow those jokes will be forgotten because there was so much other fun, and friends and drinks – life is good – at least for that night.

The Anaheim Karnevalsgesellschaft is keeping this tradition up, even under the most adverse conditions, presenting its audience great entertainment and fun nights. As one of the largest GAMGA members, the AKG is also contributing tremendously in keeping German Karneval traditions alive and growing across the United States and Canada.

I am looking forward to seeing you all in Las Vegas again and to show the world that celebrating our traditions and freedom, while bringing people together and having fun, is the most natural human thing.

As the President of GAMGA I would like to thank you all and wish you a successful and enjoyable 56. Karneval Season.

Alaaf and Helau

S.T. Prinz Matthias I. und I.L. Prinzessin Jocelyn I.

Dem magischen Augenblick vor der Kulisse vom Phoenix Club in Anaheim inthronisiert. Sie begleiten uns für zwei Jahre durch die Faschingszeit. Doppelkampagne 2020-2022

“Guten Abend und herzlich willkommen liebe Leute.
Als Prinz Matthias begrüße ich euch heute.

Als Prinz stehe ich vor euch allerdings nicht allein.
Meine Freude ist groß hier oben mit Prinzessin Jocelyn zu sein.

Als Prinzenpaar wollen wir mit einem Lob beginnen.
Es war eine wunderbare Session im letzten Jahr.
Danke an Freddy und Kirsten, ihr wart ein super Prinzenpaar!

I hope this doesn't throw previous princesses into a rage. Though, I have to say,
Prinzessin Jocelyn is the most alluring princess to ever grace this stage.

Prinzessin Jocelyn Represents Berlin in Prussia.
A German state that once bordered Russia.

I wish I, Matt, could rhyme as well as the German-American who wrote the Cat in the Hat.

For, you see, I represent Niedersachsen, which only seems to rhyme with Schweinehaxen.

Speaking of Schweinehaxen, other food, and alcohol;
we have some seasonal rules for y'all:

Drink wine from Burgundy. Drink beer from Germany.
Drink with urgency, in these times of uncertainty.

My Prinzessin Says "A beer is good. Beers are better."
If you don't drink at least a few, you will upset her.

You are allowed to engage in romance.
From six feet you can flirt and entrance. You just can't dance.

If it is to be on the dance floor that your heart longs, fear not.
You can still schunkel to all of your favorite songs.

Schunkeln, if you don't know, is a form of dancing—distinct.
In which you sit and sway rhythmically with your arms linked.

Only when drinking from your glass, mug, or flask;
may you remove your mask.

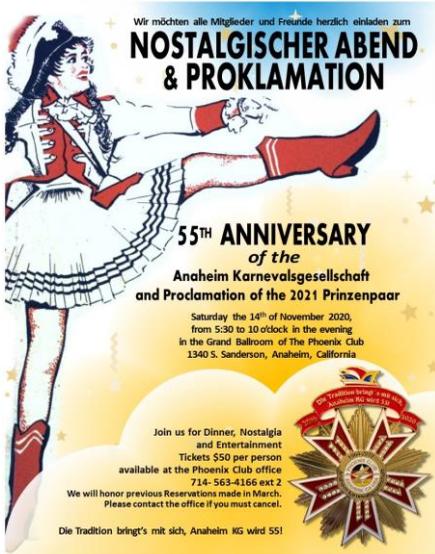

And now we ask the masses to raise your glasses!
Wir rufen euch zu, ob Mann oder Frau...dem Karneval im Phoenix Club ein dreifaches Helau.”

Phoenix Helau!
Phoenix Helau!
Phoenix Helau!

Einmal Prinz zu sein

After a short season, the 55. Anniversary of the Anaheim Karnevalsgesellschaft was postponed from March 2020 to November 2020 due to COVID-19.

When restrictions lifted in Orange County, we were fortunate to have a combined Anniversary Gala and traditional Karneval Opening for the 56th season. On that celebratory night, we crowned our incoming Prinzenpaar, Matthias I. and Jocelyn I., following a procession of former Royal couples. A Nostalgischer Abend was had by all!

Der Elferrat - The Foolish Eleven

So why the love affair with elevens?

In Germany, eleven has long been considered a witty number. The word elf means both eleven or a pixie, so that gives it mystic appeal right there. According to medieval ideas, eleven is the number of excessiveness, a diabolical number. One more than the ten fingers and one less than the twelve apostles. Nothing half and nothing whole.

Under the influence of the French Revolution of 1789, the “Elf” was also understood as a summary of the demands of the French bourgeoisie: E as egalite, L as liberte and F as fraternite (equality, freedom, brotherhood). Today this translates to a number that symbolizes the equality of all people under the fool's cap. In all these ways, eleven is considered the “fool's number.” And Karneval is all about being foolish.

“HELAU”

Our Karnevalsruf (rally cry) originated in Düsseldorf. Folklore researchers see the foolish "Helau" as a corruption of the church "Halleluja", and refer to the still existing foolish "Ajuja". Other's say is a shepard's call, or that "Helau" comes from "hello" or "he du da" and is associated with the call for the ferryman. Still others argue that it translates from "Halbblau" vernacular for (half inebriated).

In fact, modern Karneval was created as a mockery of all kinds of authorities and is particularly used as a salute or cheer of recognition for a performance or as a greeting.

The salutation of "Helau" is a Karneval institution known throughout Germany and is popular on the Lower Rhine, thus along with "Alaaf", is one of the most famous among the call of fools.

Fools out of control

So, someone invited you to German Karneval and you have no idea what to expect? To begin with, German Karneval is not the same as American Mardi Gras, though the traditions are rooted in the same purpose and religious and origins.

Karneval actually started way back during Medieval Times. It began many, many years ago as a pre-Lenten reprieve from arduous work, when costumed and masked celebrants were free to mock the monarchy without fear of retribution. A revival of the old customs took off during the French Revolution and the Prussian occupation. Therefore, many traditional Karneval uniforms some have historical military references.

Der Orden der Anaheim KG 2021-2022

The Sessions Orden or medal is given as a reward for service, excellence, or in this case is made to celebrate a special occasion – The Fifth Season. The Prinzenpaar bestows the Orden as an emblem of gratitude.

The design of a Karneval Orden can be humorous or satirical, it can reflect current events or mark group history. From the fall of the Berlin Wall, to the Corona pandemic – The Orden of the Anaheim Karnevalsgesellschaft and the Phoenix Club is always a highly sought-after party favor.

Orden of Session 2021/22

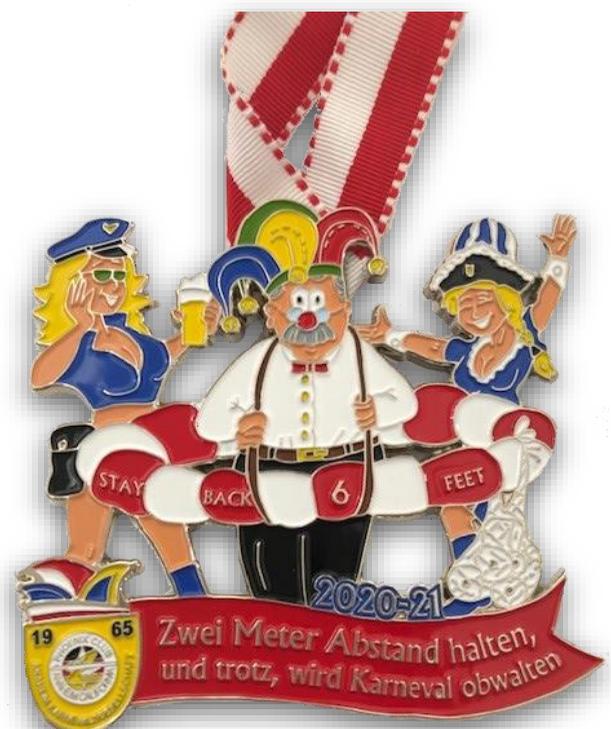

This season's motto is:

“ Wir nehmen Abschied mit einem Narrenfest
Dann ab zum Krisenfesten Narrennest“
(We take our leave with a Fools' Fest
Then it's off to a new crisis-proof Fools' Nest)

The design simply shows the Clown Car all packed for a move to a crisis proof home in Brea, California. The Year 2022 will be momentous for the Phoenix Club as well as the Anaheim KG. After 62 years in Anaheim, the club is downsizing and relocating. No, the Anaheim KG will not be changing its name, only its address. Be sure to visit us in our new home next season.

We also reprise the Orden of Session 2020/21, depicting a Karnevalist who has found a creative way to social distance while still managing to enjoy himself. He appears unworried with the added security of the toilet paper rolls tied to his life preserver. We certainly look back at the last incomplete season as very unique and feel this Orden design commemorates it with the appropriate Narren humor.

“Zwei Meter Abstand Halten, und trotz, wird Karneval obwalten“
(Despite holding two meters (or six feet) distance, Karneval will prevail)

When is Karneval

Karneval is nicknamed "die fünfte Jahreszeit. (The 5th Season) in Germany. The celebration is known around the world but has many names in Germany, where we know it as Karneval, Fastnacht, Fastelovend, Fasching or Mardi Gras today.

Martintag (St. Martin's Day) November 11, kicks off the beginning of German Mardi Gras season. Sort of an "alarm clock" for Karneval. When the guilds announce their royalty and start work on their carnival parade wagons and costumes. But even as soon as it's begun, Karneval takes a short break for the solemn Advent time, only to reappear on January 6th (Twelfth Night) right after Christmas. It carries on for 40 days, with costume balls and Sitzungen (meetings- or costume party/variety shows) until Ash Wednesday, when the all the foolishness is forgiven, and we are free to be reverent in observance of Lent.

Peak season of Karneval is the (6) days before Ash Wednesday. In Karneval strongholds; Köln (Cologne), Düsseldorf and Mainz, the cities will all but shut down for to celebrate. On Weiberfastnacht (Thursday before Ash Wednesday) the party takes to the streets. People will party for days on end at street parties, bars, events, and in their homes.

On Rosenmontag (the Monday before Ash Wednesday) in the City of Köln, over 1.5 million people will turnout to celebrate and to watch the 3 mile long Karneval parade. In fact, one could travel away from Köln and find other cities where 200,000 – 500,000 people have also turned out for local festivities.

Jeck ist einfach...

Rheinische Reibekuchen

Cooking Reibekuchen (potato pancakes) is work. But it is never boring or arduous work when you are working with friends.

Off season, the AKG raises funds by making this traditional German street food. The secret recipe came directly from Köln and never fails to please. The AKG has gained a loyal customer base at Oktoberfest. We would like to let everyone know that are packing up the "Ofen" and plan to carry on at the new club house.

Hände zum Himmel

Hände zum Himmel by Die Kolibris

This song was dubbed The Anaheim Karnevalsgesellschaft party anthem back in 2000. Whenever it plays orders are; drinks down and paws up.

The song Hände zum Himmel (Hands to Heaven) originally comes from the Netherlands and was Germanized and made into a hit by Rheinland band Kolibris in 1999. The song pretty much sums up the mood at Karneval- i.e. it's time to forget all your worries and have a good time, those people sitting next to you aren't strangers, they're just friends you haven't met yet.

Wenn du heut nicht in der Stimmung bist
Lass doch alles so sein wie es ist
Wir wollen trinken, noch einen trinken
Weil man die Sorgen dann vergisst
Fühlst du dich manchmal auch so allein
Glaub mir, dass braucht gar nicht so sein
Denn heute abend gehen wir feiern
Die ganze Welt ist ein Verein

If you're not in the mood
Let everything be as it is
We want to drink, have another drink
Because you forget your troubles
Sometimes you feel so alone
Believe me, it doesn't have to be like this
'Cause tonight we're going to celebrate
The whole world is a club

Und dann die Hände zum Himmel
Komm lasst uns fröhlich sein
Wir klatschen zusammen
Und keiner ist allein

And then hands to the sky
Come, let us be merry
We clap together
And no one is alone

Wir tun nur noch das, was uns gefällt
Tanzen, singen im Saal oder Zelt
Nicht alleine
Denn das will keiner
Uns gehört die ganze Welt
Und an morgen wird heut nicht gedacht
Wir feiern weiter die ganze Nacht
Lasst uns heben, einmal schweben
Und dabei wird nur gelacht

We only do what we please
Dancing, singing in the hall or tent
Not alone
Because no one wants that
The whole world belongs to us
And we won't think about tomorrow
We'll keep partying all night
Let us lift them, float once
Whereby all you do is laugh

Und dann die Hände zum Himmel
Komm lasst uns fröhlich sein
Wir klatschen zusammen
Und keiner ist allein

And then hands to the sky
Come, let us be merry
We clap together
And no one is alone
